 - Knighthood in the Order is conferred by traditional Liturgical Ordo for creation of a New Knight, by Benediction by Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Grand Master of the Order in the Blessed Sacrament (in the monstrance); the ceremony is jointly officiated by the Commanding Knight(s) and a Catholic Bishop, Mitred Abbot, or authorised Priest, using the Benedictio Novi Militis (Latin, from the ‘Pontificale Romanum’ of Benedict XIV & Leo XIII), the traditional sacramental blessing ritual of the Catholic Church for creation of a New Knight.
 - Knighthood in the Order is also conferred by traditional Lay Ordo for creation of a New Knight, likewise effected by Benediction by Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Grand Master of the Order in the Blessed Sacrament (in the monstrance); the ceremony is jointly officiated by the Commanding Knight(s) and a Catholic Priest, using the Lay Ordo.
 - Knights make a vow to ‘take up the Cross’ using the ‘De Benedictione et Impositione Crucis’ (Latin, from the ‘Pontificale Romanum’ of Benedict XIV & Leo XIII), the traditional sacramental blessing ritual of the Catholic Church for Knights who in former times went on Crusade and defended Christendom and the Christian Faith.
